

Former Agricultural Economics Faculty

FRANK H. DEMAREE (1884-1977)

Professor Demaree's areas of farm management education contributions included individual farm planning, economics of farmstead arrangements, outlook, and Father-Son rental agreements. He provided leadership to the Indiana Farm Management Association as its Secretary-Treasurer, and was instrumental in the development and growth of the County Association concept. Frank began his career in Land Use Planning in 1935. Following his retirement from Purdue in 1952, he established his own successful professional farm management service. He was an active participant and contributor to both his church and his community. B.S.A. Purdue, 1908; M.S.A. Missouri, 1911.
