For Alumni and Friends of Agricultural Education at Purdue University

Happy 100-Year Anniversary to Smith-Hughes Legislation!

In 1917, the Smith-Hughes Act was passed and signed providing federal funding for Agricultural Education. Now, 100 years later, Indiana Agricultural Education is going strong!

- 216 middle and high school Agricultural Education programs
- 269 Agriculture Teachers, 50% female
- Agricultural Education had the 3rd highest enrollment of majors within Purdue Teacher Education
- Purdue Agricultural Education Summer Intern Program successfully restarted after a multiple decades absence

Hope you enjoy reading through the 22nd edition of Purdue AgEd Views!

Friar and Steiner Selected as YDAE Distinguished Alumni

Dr. Robert Friar - Purdue University:
1956- BS, Agricultural Education,
1959- MS, Biological Sciences
1967- PhD, Animal Physiology

Dr. Robert Friar was selected as one of the recipients of the YDAE Distinguished Alumni Award for 2016. Over the course of his career, Dr. Friar has embodied the spirit of YDAE by encouraging his students to pursue education and empowering them through his teaching. After two teaching positions at the secondary education level, he then returned to Purdue to earn his Doctorate. He has since spent over 49 years at Ferris State University teaching Anatomy and Physiology, as well as conducting research. We congratulate Dr. Friar on this well-deserved recognition.

To nominate an alumni for the 2017 YDAE Distinguished Alumni Award please see information and nomination form at <http://www.ydae.purdue.edu/alumni/distalumni>.

Dr. B. Allen Talbert, Coordinator
Purdue University, Agricultural Education
615 W. State Street

Mr. Eric Steiner

2002 - BS Agricultural Education
2009 - J.D. George Mason University

Mr. Eric Steiner, another of the YDAE Distinguished Alumni for 2016, currently does the work of educating through his current role as Director of U.S. Government Affairs for Elanco Animal Health. Earlier, he served three years in Government Affairs at Kraft Foods, and nearly nine years in federal government. Eric credits his experiences in the Agricultural Education program with helping to form his personal vision "to build bridges between all people to ensure adequate food for our world." Congratulations, Eric!

Student Success & Recognition

◇ Ag Ambassadors for 2016-17 include:

Brandon Brunt
Skylar Clingan
Caroline Kuhn
Brianna Lammers
Austin Hubbell
Alexis Pearson

◇ Josh Calhoun, sophomore in AgEd, was selected as 1 of 12 national Teach Ag Ambassadors. This program, now in its sixth year, has had a Purdue Agricultural Education Student five of the six years: Emilie Kuhn in 2011 and 2012, Matthew Summerlot in 2014, and Olivia Steckler in 2016.

◇ Over 200 students, parents, faculty and staff, and guests attended the 2016 Spring IAAE-Purdue banquet. Our guest speaker was Mr. Josh Bledsoe, COO of the National FFA Organization.

◇ For the 11th year, freshmen participated in the Agricultural Education Learning Community. These students took classes together, participated in educational as well as fun activities, and became a strong part of the Agricultural Education family.

◇ Matthew Summerlot, senior in AgEd, was an Issues 360 Fellow for Class 3. Class 4 Fellows include the following Agricultural Education students: Josh Calhoun, Bailey Bromstrup-Crowder, Kelly Dresseler, Brianna Lammers, and Morgan Winder.

◇ Brandon Brunt was selected as the 2015 Outstanding Sophomore in the Purdue College of Agriculture. Brandon is an AgEc major with AgEd as a second major.

◇ We achieved 100% placement with graduates from May/August/December of 2016. Nine (60%) took positions teaching agriculture in Indiana, two took other agricultural teaching positions in other states, three are in agribusiness and one is in graduate school.

◇ Fall 2016 undergraduate enrollment was 100.

Scholarship Recipients Say “Thank You”

Thank you for your generous contributions serving the Purdue University Agricultural Education students. My time in Agricultural Education has proved the impact that education can have on the lives of students. I hope that while either serving in a high school agricultural classroom or as a state policy maker that I can support the future of agriculture.... — Skylar Clingan

Receiving the Ag Ed Endowment scholarship was such a heartwarming surprise! Thank you so much for making it possible. I look forward to the rest of my years at Purdue and the rest of my life in this fantastic Ag Ed family. —Sara Holderbaum

Thank you for your contribution towards my education by allowing me the honor to receive your scholarship. I truly am thankful for what you offer to students in this field. I thank you for your donation.—Cassie Lehmann

I want to thank you for investing in me with your generous scholarship. With this scholarship, I will be able to better afford my education, and continue my journey through Agricultural Education. — Foster Davenport

Please accept my sincere thanks and gratitude for awarding me an Agricultural Endowment scholarship. This scholarship will help me complete my education and start my career as an agricultural educator. I hope to bring enthusiasm to agriculture - Garrett Bitterling

Thank you so much for choosing me as a scholarship recipient. Because of you I am one step closer to achieving my goals of attending Purdue this fall and becoming an agricultural educator. —Kayleigh Krieger

NAAE Region 4 Winner

We want to recognize the Indiana Agricultural Science and Business Teachers and schools announced as 2016 National Award Winners. Congratulations to Megan McGrady of Clinton Central High School, recipient of the "Teachers Turn the Key" award at the NAAE National Convention held November 29 - December 3, 2016 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Congratulations to Kraig Bowers of Fairfield Jr./Sr. High School, recipient of the Ideas Unlimited Award.

Purdue Day of Giving

"Purdue Day of Giving" was an online fundraising event held on April 27, 2016. For 24 hours students, alumni, faculty, staff, parents and friends came together to grant opportunities and transform lives" (Purdue Website, 2017). Thanks to Purdue Agricultural Education Alumni and Friends who donated that day, we are able to award a Purdue Day of Giving Scholarship to an Agricultural Education student for 2017-18.

Thank you for your participation in this event! Look for Social Media announcements to participate in future Purdue Day of Giving.

Agricultural Education Endowment Report

Thank you to each of our contributors who support Agricultural Education through your generous donations. For the December 31, 2016 Endowment reports, the Endowment combined with named endowments has more than $425,000 generating scholarship support for Agricultural Education students.

Scholarships totaling $38,000 were awarded for the 2016-17 school year for a total of greater than $306,500 over the life of the Endowment. Through your generous donations, we continue to educate the next generation of AgEd teachers.

FACULTY & STAFF NOTES

- ◇ AMY CONRAD was selected by the College of Agriculture's Ag Council as Student Choice Advisor Award recipient at the Spring 2016 College of Agriculture Awards Banquet. Congratulations to Amy for her hard work with our students.
- ◇ MELISSA GEIGER has completed her first full year with AgEd in YDAE. She has enjoyed learning about the program, and meeting students and alumni. If you have any suggestions for information you would like to see in the next AgEd Views, please email any comments to melissaj@purdue.edu, or visit her in AGAD 229. There may be a short survey coming to you in email soon as well.
- ◇ DR. JERRY PETERS effective August 15, 2016 was approved for the Purdue Voluntary Early Partial Retirement Program (VEPR) with full retirement from Purdue University no later than May 12, 2019. This half-time appointment is to be satisfied with zero percent employment during the first five months (August through December) and full-time status during the second five months (January through May) and then ten weeks during the summer. In October, Dr. Peters received the North Central Region American Association for Agricultural Education Distinguished International Agricultural Educator Award. Dr. Peters continues his teaching and student teacher supervision this Spring and in May, he and Dr. Talbert will lead the eleventh study abroad Maymester to Jamaica for Agricultural Education students. You can find Dr. Peters in AGAD 220-A or by email at peters@purdue.edu.
- ◇ DR. ALLENTALBERT continued the collaboration with Sonya Lord-Chamberlain of Arsenal Tech High School to develop resources for teaching urban agriculture. He also enjoyed co-leading the Jamaica Study Abroad for 19 Purdue Agricultural Education students. In October, Dr. Talbert received the North Central Region American Association for Agricultural Educators Distinguished Teacher Award. You can find Dr. Talbert in AGAD 224 or email him at btalbert@purdue.edu
- ◇ BETH THEOBALD, YDAE Limited-Term Lecturer, is again teaching YDAE 319 this semester and following up student teachers. She began working in July 2016 mentoring the Indiana Ag Ed Pipeline students from Vincennes and the Indiana IVY Tech agriculture programs. Beth can be reached at batheoba@purdue.edu or in AGAD 216.

2016 DISTINGUISHED AGRICULTURE ALUMNI AWARD

Dexter Wakefield is assistant professor of agricultural education and mechanics at Texas State University, San Marcos, Texas, and an adjunct professor of agriculture education at North Carolina A&T University, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Wakefield's letter of nomination for the College of Agriculture's Distinguished Agriculture Alumni Award came from a man with no connection to the college, but is a former student of Wakefield's at Southern Illinois University.

"As an adviser, Dr. Wakefield helped me develop a strong work ethic, a commitment to excellence, the importance of continuing professional development and the importance of taking on leadership roles," said Alex D. Meredith, an agricultural adviser, recruiter and adjunct instructor for the College of Agriculture and Related Sciences at Delaware State University.

"As a colleague, Dr. Wakefield leads by example and empowers agricultural professionals to think critically, make informed decisions that mutually benefit and to lead by servitude. He is compassionate about agricultural education and the impact it will have on future generations as we deal with agricultural adversities and uncertainties. He understands the need for a strong agricultural workforce."

Prior to accepting his current faculty position, Wakefield was the education research coordinator for the Center for Urban and Multicultural Education, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, and served as the director of diversity and inclusion for the National FFA Organization.

He was acknowledged by receiving the Honorary American FFA Degree and the Outstanding Teacher of the Year, Faculty of the Year and Outstanding Contribution to Agriculture Education awards. He has also served as national president of two agricultural organizations -- Alpha Tau Alpha (honorary agricultural education organization) and MANRRS (Minorities in Agriculture, Natural Resources and Related Sciences).

Dr. Wakefield earned both his Master's Degree (1998) and his PhD (2001) from Youth Development and Agricultural Education (YDAE).

Recruitment into Agricultural Education

Recruitment of high school students into Agricultural Education at Purdue continues to be a top priority. We are again asking Agricultural Education alumni and friends to forward the names of students who might be interested in Agricultural Education at Purdue. Upon receiving these names, we will mail potential students a letter and a pamphlet explaining Purdue's Agricultural Education Program and invite them to our Purdue Agricultural Education Recruitment Day held in November on the Purdue campus. We have experienced a great deal of success with this one-on-one approach to recruiting.

We would appreciate your help by identifying those students who would be well served by Agricultural Education at Purdue University. You may send their name, address, phone number, and grade in high school via mail to: Agricultural Education, Purdue University at the address on the cover, or you may email to: agedundergrad@ydae.purdue.edu or telephone at 765-494-8433.

Necrology Report

Below are those former agricultural education teachers whom we honor as they have passed away in the past year, or we were just recently notified of their passing.
