If you have any questions or need additional information please visit the NRLDI website at <http://www.agriculture.purdue.edu/fnr/nrldi/index.html> , email karenann@purdue.edu, or call 765-494-3583.

What is the nature of your involvement with natural resources or the environment—either in your industry, business, community, state or federal agency, organization, profession, local government, or offices held?

What do you feel is your greatest responsibility, skill, or achievement to date in your professional or personal life?

What do you hope to achieve from your experience in the NRLDI?

An important component of NRLDI is the application of skills learned in the sessions. How do you hope to use the knowledge and skills that you gain from this experience?

Attendance and Participation

Graduation from the Natural Resources Leadership Institute is contingent on your full attendance and involvement in the workshop sessions as listed. Sessions will begin at 1:00 on the first day and conclude at noon on the third day.

Session 1: September 13-15, Turkey Run State Park Lodge

Session 2: October 18-20, Spring Mill State Park Lodge

Session 3: November 8-10, McCormick's Creek State Park Lodge

Fees

Participants will be responsible for the $500 fee as well as travel to the seminar sites. The majority of the costs are covered by the grant. A limited number of $250 scholarships are available for the self-employed and volunteers with not-for-profit organizations.

_____ Check here if you would like more information about the $250 scholarships.
